

Ormeau Health Centre

Privacy Notice

Patients

This notice explains why your GP practice collects information about you and how that information may be used.

Ormeau Health Centre maintains records about your health and any treatment or care you may have received previously by other practices, hospitals and Trusts. These records help us to provide you with the best possible healthcare.

We understand that problems discussed are usually of a personal nature and patients expect that the information they are sharing will remain confidential. This confidentiality is central to the trust between us and you as our patient.

The data we hold on you, our patients must be:

1. Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
2. Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
4. Accurate and kept up to date.
5. Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
6. Kept securely.

Staff training incorporates data protection and the need for strict confidentiality

How we process your personal information

Health records are electronic or on paper, or both. We use a combination of working practice and technology to ensure that your personal information is kept confidential and secure. The physical storage of your information is on secure servers which are protected by firewalls. Access to this data is only by authenticated passwords and is limited to members of the practice team. Paper records are kept in a key pad locked reception area, away from the public view.

Records we hold in this practice about you may include the following:

- Registration Documentation as per requirement on form HSCR1
- Details about you; your address, telephone number, email address, gender, date of birth, carer's details, patient on-line access account ID and emergency contact details
- All contacts the surgery has had with you, such as appointments, clinic visits, hospital appointments, home visits, telephone consultations, complaints made, accidents within the building
- Reports and notes about your health, your care, immunisations, treatments received, referrals made both within the practice and from outside agencies

- Results of investigations; blood results, x-rays taken both in the practice and in outside clinics
- Relevant Information from other healthcare professionals, relatives and carers
- Prison release information, medical record information with signed consent
- Third party sources e.g. information requests from Insurance Companies and Solicitors, Employment Medical Forms, PIP forms, ESA forms, Travel Insurance Claims
- Child Protection Information; case conference notes (kept separately in locked unit)

If you participated in a medical research trial with Ormeau Health Centre we hold your personal information, along with details of your medical history and consultations with the research department for a period defined in the consent you signed at the beginning of the clinical trial.

If you decide to register with another practice or pass away your electronic record will be printed off and sent with the paper records we hold to the Business Services Organisation (BSO). Your information is transferred via a secure courier service. Once you are removed from Ormeau Health Centre's practice list we will only access your computer record in a life and death situation and the reason for this will be recorded and is auditable.

To ensure you receive the best possible care, your records are used to facilitate the care you receive. Information held about you may be used to protect the health of the public. Information may be used with Ormeau Health Centre for clinical audit purposes to monitor and improve the quality of the care we provide. From time to time we may use your information for statistical purposes but we take strict measures to ensure the data is anonymised.

Highly sensitive information e.g. child protection register information and case conference minutes are kept separate from the medical records in a red/orange identifiable folder.

How we maintain confidentiality of your medical record

We are committed to protecting your privacy and will only use information about you lawfully in accordance with

- GDPR (General Data Protection Regulations)
- NHS Codes of Confidentiality, Information Security and Records Management

Every member of staff in Ormeau Health Centre has a legal obligation to keep your information confidential and this is an essential part of every employees induction programme. We will only ever pass on your information if others involved in your care have a genuine need for it. We will not disclose your information to any third party without your permission unless in exceptional circumstances such as life or death situations where the law requires information to be passed on in accordance with the Caldicott principles. This means that healthcare professionals should have the confidence to share information in the best interests of the patients within the framework of the Caldicott principles. They should be supported by policies of employers and professional bodies.

We may need to share your information with the following organisations but this will be subject to stringent agreements on how it will be used:

- Hospitals and Trust Departments including District Nursing, Midwives & Counsellors

- The Department of Health and Health & Social Care Board
- The Business Services Organisation (GP registrations)

- Processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data

Breaches of information

We must report any breaches to the ICO within 72 hours of becoming aware of it. The individual concerned must be contacted as soon as possible.

Objections/Complaints

If you have any concerns about how your information is managed at Ormeau Health Centre, please contact the Practice Manager. If you are still not happy following this discussion you can then complain to the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) via their website www.ico.gov.uk

If you are at any time unhappy with your data being shared please contact the Practice Manager.

Change of personal details

It is important that you advise us of any changes to your address and telephone number and email address. If you notice incorrect details such as a wrong date of birth please inform us right away so that we can update our records.

Our methods of contacting you

At Ormeau Health Centre we use four methods of contacting our patients, in relation to health matters. We can telephone, send letters, text and email our patients if we need to advise you regarding test results, annual reviews or general matters regarding your healthcare. Telephone calls, SMS and Email messages are a much quicker method of contact, especially in cases where urgent treatment is required. We will only send text messages or emails to those over the age of 16 years or those over the age of 12 years who are deemed competent.

IF YOU DO NOT WISH TO RECEIVE SMS OR EMAILS FROM US – PLEASE SPEAK TO RECEPTION AND WE WILL ENSURE YOUR RECORD IS CODED ACCORDINGLY.

Data Protection

The GDPR requires organisations to register with the ICO to describe the purposes for which they are processing personal and sensitive information.

This information is publicly available on the ICO website www.ico.gov.uk

Ormeau Health Centre is registered with the ICO.

The Data Protection Officer is: Dr Claire Diamond

The Data Controller is responsible for, and be able to demonstrate compliance.

CCTV usage in Ormeau Health Centre

CCTV monitoring is used in the public areas within the building. This is for security of the premises and crime prevention and detection. We may use these recordings in cases where a crime has been committed or for insurance purposes. These recordings may be requested by the PSNI or Judicial Services. Recorded CCTV data is refreshed after 24-28 days.
